

Fine Arts Booster Group Fall Mini-Grant Applications*

(Number of applications received: 12, Elementary 8 and High 4 Amount requested $ 6,145, available $5,500)

Belle Sherman Elementary, music, Cindy Daly, serving 110 plus, $500

“Magnificent Mariachi Music”

“The Belle Sherman Mariachi Ensemble is expanding into a full year program and would like to purchase a second vihuela in order to allow more students to play this unique, Mexican Folk instrument.
cdaly@icsd.k12.ny.us

Belle Sherman Elementary, music, Rich Schlenker, serving 35 students $200

“Orchestra accompaniment CD Player at Belle Sherman”

“Orchestra students will rehearse their individual orchestra parts with recorded accompaniments (in their weekly string lessons) in order to become more comfortable with how their parts fit into the total texture of our orchestra pieces.”

rschlenk@icsd.k12.ny.us

Beverly J. Martin Elementary, music, Aaron Buck, serving 25 $500

“Violins for Little Hands”

“This is a yearly project to add instruments to the BJM Elementary String Program”.(support for 3-4 half size violins)

aaronbuck1@yahoo.com

Enfield Elementary, music and storytelling, Christine Finnigan, serving 250, $500

“Nigerian Drumming and Story Telling”

“This project will be a full day resident y Aloja Airewele who would visit every classroom to share aspects of Nigerian culture through stories, drumming and artifacts”. (Boces aidable)

cfinniga@icsd.k12.ny.us

Enfield Elementary, music, theater, dance, Karla Notarianni, serving 150 $500

“Learning Improvisation: Music, Theater, Dance”

All Third and Fifth grade students will engage in arts performance sessions, with a focus on improvisation, with Paul Overton, and internationally-known Lindy Dance teacher and musician. (Boces aidable)

knotaria@icsd.k12.ny.us

Fall Creek Elementary, music, theater, dance, Karla Notarianni, serving 120 $500

“Learning Improvisation: Music, Theater, Dance”

All Third and Fifth grade students will engage in arts performance sessions, with a focus on improvisation, with Paul Overton, and internationally-known Lindy Dance teacher and musician. (Boces aidable)

knotaria@icsd.k12.ny.us

Northeast Elementary, music, Greg McQuade, serving 380 $450

“Vitamin L Performance”

This performance will teach character education through music. (Boces aidable)

gmcquade@icsd.k12.ny.us

South Hill Elementary, theater, Beth Wixson, serving 51 $500
“Mrs. McPuppet”

Mrs. McPuppet will do a show and then visit each kindergarten class for a 45 minutes of puppet making and show the children how to bring their puppets to life.” (Boces aidable)
bwixson@icsd.k12.ny.us

Lehman Alternative Community School, movement theater with spoken word, Jon Raimon $500
serving 35 plus 150, “Keesha’s House” project”

“A story, dance and theater skills residency focused on literary using Helen Frost’s book “Keesha’s House”, resulting in a performance and collaborating with the TST Boces and percussionist Ketu Oladuwa, and other English classes at Ithaca High (BOCES aidable)

jraimon@twcny.rr.com ltsetse@twcny.rr.com

Ithaca High School, art, Carol Spence, serving 33 plus 33 children, $500
“The Memory Project”

“An initiative in which art students receive photographs of children from other countries who have been disadvantaged/orphaned and the students create their portraits and send them back as gifts of affirmation and identity”.

cspence@icsd.k12.ny.us

Ithaca High School, art, Judy Cogan, serving 60 $400
“Kids Need Cameras”

“The Ithaca High Photography program currently owns 8 cameras for 50-60 students to use each semester, which is not enough to make project completion east to do in a timely manner”. Cameras

jcogan@icsd.k12.ny.us

Ithaca High School, music, Art Loomis, serving 115 $450
“I.H.S. Choir Concert Uniform Material”

The choir increased by a large number this year and material was needed to make over 30 new outfits.

aloomis@icsd.k12.ny.us

(Fall 2011 capital items total $1,600)

Students served (fall): 1,547

Arts area represented: Art 2 Music 8 Theater 4

Fall 2011 Minigrant Total awarded $5,500